

Endurance Vehicle Protection Named as Finalist in the 6th Annual 2014 Golden Bridge Awards for Website of the Year

Endurance Vehicle Protection, the nation's only direct-to-consumer provider of extended vehicle protection, commonly referred to as an extended auto warranty, was nominated for Best Website of the Year by the Golden Bridge Awards. Endurance is the only provider that is both A+ rated by the Better Business Bureau and Gold-Certified by the Vehicle Protection Association.

Chicago, IL (PRWEB) August 29, 2014 -- Endurance Vehicle Protection has been recognized as a finalist in the Annual 2014 Golden Bridge Awards for Best Website of the Year. The coveted annual Golden Bridge Awards program along with active participation from a broad spectrum of industry voices, encompasses the world's best in organizational performance, products & services, innovations, product management, websites, and customer satisfaction programs from every major industry in the world.

Over the past year, Endurance has undergone extensive consumer research to give their customers the best user experience possible when purchasing extended coverage. By creating a website that is aesthetically pleasing, easy to navigate, and brimming with useful features and information, Endurance was able to craft a website that invites users to stay and learn about the benefits of extended protection.

“It is truly an honor to be named a finalist by the Golden Bridge Awards in this category of excellence,” said Paul Chernawsky, Co-Founder of Endurance. “This award is a testament to Endurance’s commitment to improving every aspect of the consumer experience. It is our goal to differentiate ourselves from the competition by being the best provider in the vehicle protection industry. And with this nomination for Best Website of the Year, we believe we have once again achieved our goal.”

Endurance faces off against five other competitors in this category. Winners will be honored in San Francisco on Monday, September 8, 2014 during the 6th annual awards dinner and presentations.
