

Endurance Named Gold Award Winner for Best Extended Car Warranty Services by TopTenREVIEWS

Has Your Auto Warranty Expired or is About to Expire? TopTenREVIEWS lists a consumer-friendly comparison of the best extended car warranty services, naming Endurance as #1.

Chicago, IL (PRWEB) June 04, 2014 -- Endurance, a top-rated provider of extended vehicle protection based in Chicago, was recently ranked as the #1 Extended Vehicle Protection Provider for 2014 by TopTenREVIEWS. Endurance was extensively reviewed and awarded 9.9/10, a near-perfect score, which earned Endurance the Gold Award, making them the highest rated company in the industry.

TopTenREVIEWS analysis of Endurance highlights the company's award-winning customer service and coverage options, "Endurance gives your vehicle excellent extended protection and competent, friendly customer service. Plus, you only deal with Endurance for the entire warranty."

By administering its very own direct-to-consumer coverage plans, Endurance sets itself apart from other companies that merely market coverage plans. As stated above, you only work with Endurance for the entire life of your policy. In addition to this advantage, Endurance is also the only provider of vehicle coverage industry-wide that is both A+ rated by the Better Business Bureau and Gold-Certified by the Vehicle Protection Association.

Countless drivers today are misinformed about the vehicle protection industry and are accustomed to purchasing coverage from a dealer when they originally buy the vehicle. But the industry has evolved from this. Now, consumers have the choice of many third-party providers that can offer more coverage, better customer service, and more affordable prices.

"We are very proud to have won this award which solidifies Endurance's status as the premier provider of extended vehicle protection in the nation", states Steven Kay, Customer Service Director at Endurance. "We believe in matching the right level of coverage with the right customer and providing it at an affordable price. Our company's motto is to empower confidence for the road ahead, and our customers live by this foundation every day."

As one of the nation's largest providers of vehicle protection, Endurance is extremely grateful to hold the title of Gold Award Winner for the entirety of 2014. With multiple coverage plans, reliable customer assistance, and a no hassle money-back guarantee, it's no wonder why Endurance continuously comes out on top.
